

Interprogram Giving

Alliance for Justice

The Alliance works to strengthen the ability of the nonprofit sector to participate effectively in public policy debates. Support was also directed to efforts to help maintain a fair and independent judiciary.

2000 ($20,000), 1999 ($10,000), 1998 ($15,000)

Collage (Tides Center)

This grant supported the Girls' Empowerment Comic Book Project.
1998 ($16,000)

DataCenter

The DataCenter provides access to strategic information, analysis and research skills that support social justice advocates in conducting more effective campaigns.

2001 ($10,000), 2000 ($25,000), 1999 ($25,000)

Media Access Project

MAP is a nonprofit law firm representing the public's interest on media issues in the courts, before the Federal Communications Commission and in the press. MAP advocates and promotes First Amendment rights in new and old technologies, and has been active in the fight against media concentration and in support of fair and balanced election coverage and democratic technologies such as low power FM radio stations and open-access Internet.

2000 ($5,000)

National Committee for Responsive Philanthropy

NCRP works to strengthen the nonprofit sector by promoting greater philanthropic openness and accountability. Support was provided to educate grantmakers and nonprofit organizations about conservative philanthropic strategies.

2000 ($20,000), 1999 ($15,000), 1998 ($25,000)

Progressive Technology Project

This collaborative organization works to build the capacity of progressive grassroots organizations in the effective use of new technologies. Support was provided to develop and launch PTP, as well as to underwrite ongoing programs.

2004 ($35,000), 2003 ($33,000), 2002 ($40,000), 2001 ($40,000), 2000 ($50,000), 1999 ($50,000)