Fairness and Accuracy in Reporting

FAIR researches and documents media bias and censorship and promotes independent, critical journalism. FAIR increases public awareness of the challenges posed for journalism by narrow media ownership and tracks media under-representation of women, people of color, working people and other public interest constituencies. FAIR also works directly with journalists in an effort to broaden and deepen coverage.
2004 ($10,000)

TomPaine.com (The Florence Fund)

John Moyers founded TomPaine.com in 1995 to amplify public-interest voices on controversial issues, often in coordination with advertisements published on the op-ed page of The New York Times. TomPaine.com provides daily highlights and links to news, ideas and actions.
2003 ($10,000), 2002 ($10,000), 2001 ($10,000)

In These Times (Institute for Public Affairs)

In These Times is a magazine of news, opinion and culture, committed to extending political and economic democracy and to opposing the control of the marketplace over human values.
